A shareholder holding shares registered in more than one securities account may appoint separate proxies to exercise the rights attached to shares held in each account.

The Company also informs that if a shareholder grants the power of attorney together with a voting instruction, the Company will not verify whether the proxies exercise voting rights as instructed by the shareholders. Consequently, the Company informs that the voting instruction should be given to the appointed proxy only.

Additionally, the Company may take other steps to identify the shareholder and the proxy in order to verify the validity of the power of attorney granted in an electronic form, with such steps being proportionate to the objective.
